

I am Awesome!

Amazing, Surprising, Beautiful, and Powerful

Every day, there are ways
I take the time to celebrate!

I see the beauty inside of me and I love myself from my head to my feet.

When days are hard and I do not feel awesome,
I spend time with others who cheer me on.

Life is made up of good and hard days
that help me grow stronger
in so many ways.
